The affidavit of John M. Larson gives only a general outline of the work of the police force in compelling vagrants and prisoners to register, some of whom had no legal residence in Utah. Larson was arrested in Commercial street Oct. 2, and was taken to the city fail, where he was held for two weeks before he was allowed a hearing. He was then sentenced to serve thirty days, on the unsupported testimony of a police officer, who said he had seen Larson wanted to register on the first day of registration, he says, and his request was repeated to Jailer Gulbransen last Tuesday. JAMES D. MURDOCH

JAMES D. MURDOCH'S DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

I will to the best of my ability safeguard the interest of the people in so far as I am able with the assistance of the council and the heads of departments. There will be equal rights extended to all and special

I will endeavor to bring about competition in all classes of public contracts, and beg to assure all bidders that they will receive fair and courteous treatment at my hands. I favor public improvements of all kinds that will add to the comfort and improvement of this community. Every family in this city is justly entitled to a liberal supply of pure water. Cement sidewalks should and must be extended wherever the people desire them and are willing to furnish the money to pay

Sewers should and must be extended in all directions, and connections to same enforced, in order that the public health may not suffer, and the ever-recurring periods when contagious diseases prevail in our fair city may be eliminated as far as possible.

I favor street paving wherever the abutters on the streets to be paved shall petition the city council to have the improvements made, in so far as the city is able to pay for its share of the improvements made. I favor and will constantly endeavor to limit contracts, in size and extent, in order that the man or men with limited capital may have the opportunity to get their share of all public work and on all large jobs to so divide the work that parties equipped with tools and machinery to perform part of the work may come in competition with those who are prepared to do all the labor and furnish all the material to complete the

I cordially recommend the proposition now under consideration by the school board of this city, to build and equip a magnificent High school building that will be in harmony with the many grand school buildings we now possess, and be a source of delight and admiration to all friends of education at home as well as the admiration of all our visitors from abroad, and will gladly vote for bonds to build the same.

I condemn the methods heretofore in vogue of the party in power taking the initiative in inaugurating improvements without the knowledge and consent of property owners along the line of the proposed improvement and carried out with the purpose in view of furnishing favored contractors with large jobs at exorbitant prices, to the great injury of the taxpayers of Salt Lake.

I will extend the same courtesies to the man in overalls as I will to those of our citizens who may be better equipped with the necessaries and the luxuries of everyday life, remembering always that I, too, have been a workingman, and proud to acknowledge it.

I firmly believe that public office is a public trust, and the acts of public men are fit subjects for public criticism. Public officers are the servants of the people, and as such are responsible only to the people.

ST POINT CADET IN HARVARD FOOTBALL GAME

Death Cancels the Entire Schedule Including the Famous Army-Navy Annual Contest.

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 31 .- Cadet Eugene A. Byrne, who was injured in yesterday's football game between the Army team and Harvard, died early today. His father, former Chief of Police John A. Byrne of Buffalo, was with him when he died. The tragedy has brought such poignant grief to officers and codets alike that the end of football at WestPoint and Annapolis is announced for this season and perhaps forever. Young Byrne expired at sunrise. Buried beneath a mass of struggling players in the Harvard-Army game yesterday, his neck was twisted and broken by the weight of the New York, Oct. 31 .- Elections will be held Tuesday in many states and cities. Three states will elect governors and full state tickets, namely: Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Virginia. New Jersey will elect both branches of the legislature. Pennsylvania will elect a state treasurer, an auditor general and judge of the supreme court. Nebraska will elect two justices of the supreme court and three university regents.

In point of interest, the municipal campaigns of New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco far exceed that of the state contests. In each of these municipal contests the reform question is a dominant issue. Practically all of the contests—state and municipal—are on local issues, with no national questions in-
